ROSE TO THE OCCASION.

The American G. I. as Usual. Man aged to Win the Trick.

A man who is back from a visit to Paris and Germany is telling a story which ought to make the great American eagle flap bis wings with pride. It happened at a little railway station in Germany, Grunenwald by name, while the man who tells about it was waiting for a train on a branch line which connects with the main line at that place. Besides himself there were at the station a party of American tourists of the kind you read about in English books and an English family of the kind you read about in American books. The Americans were loud voiced and ungrammatical. They laughed a great deal and they are peaches, the stones of which they threw at a post to test their marksmanship. They were persons for whom Uncle Sam himself would have felt apologetic, and they displeased the haughty British materfamilias greatly. To the younger members of her family, a gawky boy and a lanky and "leggy" girl of the typical elongated English variety-they were objects of great interest, however, and the girl in particular edged nearer and nearer, to her mother's great disgust. At last she was so near that mamma could endure it no longer.

"Clara!" she called in her loudest voice, "come away at once. You might be mistaken for one of those disgusting Americans!"

A pretty young American looked up and swept Chara from head to foot with a calm glance. Then she went on eating peaches.

"Don't worry, madam," she called out cheerily. "There's no danger of that-with them feet!"-Washington

He Despised Tobacco.

The healthful or reverse action of tobacco has been an absorbing question for decades and one bard to settle. Emerson, cautious as he was, was once drawn into a discussion on the subject and, being a nonuser of the weed, was an ardent advocate of its abolition as a marketable commodity.

"Did you ever think about the logic of stimulants?" he asked. "Nature supplies her own. It is astonishing what she will do if you give her a chance. In how short a time the gentle excitation of a cup of tea is needed! Conversation is an excitant, and the series of intoxications it creates is healthful. But tobacco, tobacco-what rude crowbar is that with which to pry into the delicate tissues of the brain."

A Bold Defense.

"An enlisted man once put the president of a court martial in a difficult position," says a writer in Cassell's Magazine. "The court martial was trying the soldier for some fault or other. When the evidence-and it took an unusually long time-had been given, the president asked the prisoner if he had anything to say in his defense.

"'Well, sir,' said the man, 'I can't see how this 'ere court can sentence me, for Major Jones 'as been reading a paper under the table the 'ole blooming time, and Captain Smith 'as been making me into a karicatoor on the blotting pad, and as for Lieutenant Brown, 'e 'asn't 'ad his commission a year, and don't count anyways!" "

Powers of Endurance.

"When my grandfather was a young man," said the boy with a snub nose, "he could run ten miles without stop-

"I heard my grandfather make a praver 25 minutes long once at a prayer meetin," responded the boy with the dirty face, "an it didn't feaze him."-Chicago Tribune.

No Place Like Home.

An Atchison man took sick Saturday and decided to stay home till he got rested. He was back at work at noon Monday. His wife asked him within a few hours to take care of the baby, to chop onions for pickles, to grind the coffee, to dress the children and to milk the cow "while he was resting."-Atchison Globe.

Forrest as a Negro Minstrel.

From almost the beginning of American stage history there were negroes of the minstrel variety impersonated on the stage, though it was not until about 1840 that they were organized into bands. Some of the greatest actors of later days had their experience as minstrels, among them Joe Jefferson and Edwin Forrest.

Forrest was given a negro "song and dance" act to do when he was very young, and after he had studied it up he asked where was the "old negro lady" that was to act his assistant in the plece. The management tried several of the women who were members of the company, but none of them would consent to blacken up, and, in fact, they were very indignant over the proposition. The actor, however, was not easily discouraged, and on the night of the first performance he blackened up and went around the corner to an old negro woman who did his wash-

"Hello, Dinah." he said on entering "How yo' be er feelin dis bery fine ebenin?

"Hello, yo'," replied the African lady. "'Pears to me yo' am er bery fresh nig-

"I'ze no nigger," answered Forrest, and then, time being rather short, he assumed his natural voice and told Dinah, much to her surprise, that he was Forrest, the actor, and that he wanted her to go on the stage with him that night and laugh loudly at frequent incalled for. The two made a great hit and were kept on for some time, which goes to show that Forrest might have been a good minstrel had he been of an ambitious nature .- Saturday Evening

A FAST BALL PLAYER

HE MAY OR MAY NOT HAVE PLAYED WITH THE ROARERS.

Own Throw to First and Who Could Get Behind the Plate In Time to Catch His Own Pitching.

"The fastest base runner I ever saw," said the fat ex-mascot of the Lightfoot Lilles in comparing baseball of the present with that of the old days, "was little Sammie Salmon of the Lilies, But the fastest base runner I ever heard of was, or wasn't, as the case may have been, Steve Speed, who played, or who didn't play, I don't know which, with the Ringtall Ronrers. At any rate, whether he ever played with the Roar ers or not, he was certainly the fastest that ever came over the crossways You don't understand? Well, I'll tell you all about him.

"'Boys,' said the Slugger, crumpling the paper savagely in his fists, 'to Lily park with you. Practice begins a once. Hustle!

"Well, sir, that week we practiced. In the morning the boys would all go down to the station and race the trains as they steamed out of town. Afternoons they'd ease up a bit and just in dulge in short sprints paced by the town trolley car. At night the daily practice would conclude with a brisk cross country run around the township. The work began to show. At the end of the week we began to have some hopes of beating the Roarers after all. And then came a second copy of The Courier knocking our hopes higher than taxes.

"The wonderful baseball feat performed by Steve Speed,' the article said, 'which was published exclusively by The Jones County Courier, has been eclipsed by an even more astonishing performance by the same player. We have it from the same high source from which we obtained our former news that Speed has now become so proficlent in running that he is able to pitch the ball from the box and by an incredibly quick start reach the plate in time to catch the ball behind the bat. The Roarers have released their pulse? It did ours. even worse. The Courier got straight from their own private high source that this guy Speed was even better than the week before. He was now so super at the game that he not only ran down behind the plate and caught the balls that he pitched, but in case the batter knocked a fly he darted out in the field and caught it himself. The Roarers had, according to The Courier, released their whole outfield. When we read that, Bull Thompson wanted to cancel the game, but the Slugger wouldn't hear of it. 'The Lightfoot Lilles,' he said, 'may be made to look like tarbeel thistles, but we won't wither before we're picked." "When the big game finally did come off, the Roarers certainly had us on the run. For three innings they piled up runs almost at will. But then we be gan to get wise. Where was this fast running phenom? Cy Priest was still in the pitcher's box, and the whole outfield seemed to be in their usual places. Perhaps he was sick. The thought gave us courage, and we began to pick up a bit. You all know how we finally pulled the game out of the fire in the last half of the tenth. That's a mat ter of history now. Well, after if was over the Slugger went up to Cy Priest. "'Say,' he asked, 'where's that hot base runner of yours. Cy? "'You mean Steve Speed?' replied Cy, with a funny look in his eye. 'Oh, we couldn't pay the salary he demand ed and had to let him go. The last I heard of him he was touring the northwest, playing exhibition games to enormous crowds.' "Yes, sir; he was the best that ever was-if he was. As I said, I don't really know. Of course The Courier said that they had it from a high source. but then- Well, you know Cy Priest was over six feet."-New York Sun.

The Old Time Doctor.

"When I was a young fellow," said the man who notices things, "the family physician attended to all the ills of the family, and the specialists of the profession were wholly unknown. The country doctor was a surgeon as well as a physician. He was almost always clever and usually had remedies of his own invention for common ailments. A large number of the successful patent medicines now before the public are prescriptions of the old time country physician. I could name a dozen such.

"Old Dr. Hill, who was the leader in the town I grew up in, was called into the country by an urgent message one night. He wasn't advised what the patient was suffering from and upon arrival found it was an ulcerated tooth that was subjecting its owner to almost unbearable pain. Not a surgical instrument did the doctor have with him. and his office was seven miles away. Did he send back for his instruments? Not much! He extracted that tooth with an ordinary hammer "Mehbe it's the stuff they learn to and until to the complete satisfaction of bis patient and himself. I'll wager he made a mighty good job of it too,"— New York Tribune.
